

Hi - If you want your children to have a great start to half-term week - why not send them along to our Children's Holiday Club a new initiative for children from your local Church of England churches.

This year our big theme is the story of Noah. Parents are invited to a show at the end of the day and for a hotdog tea after.

If you want to get in touch about anything any time - just email us at admin@hopechurchfamily.org.

Fun-packed

one day only

Holiday Club

Mon 18th February
in half term week

Out of the Ark!

Come and enjoy games, songs with iSingPop, cooking, Bible stories, craft, songs & lots LOTS more.

for years 1-6

9.30am - 3.30pm

followed by review for family & friends plus hotdogs for all!

Come along!

Are you in school years 1 to 6? Do you enjoy wacky games, music, crafts, working in groups, storytelling and other activities? If you do then come along to our Holiday Club on Monday 18 February 2019 at St Peter and St Paul's Church, Old Street, Upton upon Severn, from 9.30am to 4pm.

We'll finish with a review of the day in the church at 3.45pm for your family and friends to come along to and see what we've been doing. This will be followed by a free hotdog tea for everyone! So no need to make tea that night!

Things to remember

Children should wear old, warm, clothing and trainers, bring a packed lunch including drink. We will provide drinks during breaks.

All Leaders are DBS checked, and any additional assistants will not be in sole charge of children at any stage. Photos and a video may be taken on the day for publicity within Upton Deanery and its Diocese.

If you would like to join us, please fully fill in the form opposite including addresses and contact numbers. Post your form to: Holiday Club, Church Office, St Peter and St Paul's Church, Upton upon Severn, WR8 0JF

Queries? Please telephone 01684 591241 (Mon, Tue, Thu, Fri 9:30am-1pm)

The Day will cost £5 per child payable on the day. Places are limited so send your form back as soon as possible and at the very latest by 14 February. Assume your child has a place unless you hear back from us.
